10. [ ] BRIEFING Accompanied [ ] DDI/CPS/CSS, to a meeting with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, regarding the planned 29 September briefing. The agenda for the session had grown too lengthy and [ ] and Miller agreed on deletions. [ ] also informed Miller of the once a week substantive briefings to the members of the staff on the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. Miller accepted [ ] suggestion for regular substantive briefings for the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. The briefings will be biweekly and will begin on Tuesday, 4 October. I asked Miller whether he had reviewed the 20 July transcript of the Director's briefing and whether the deletions we had suggested were satisfactory. Miller said he had done so and the deletions would be made. Miller reviewed a draft letter to Senator James Abourezk (D., S. Dak.), Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, Senate Judiciary Committee, in which we suggested some special arrangements for the Select Committee to handle papers for Senator Abourezk's Subcommittee to review. Miller said this approach was fine.

26. [ ] BRIEFING Accompanied [ ]
ORPA, and [ ] DDI/CPS/CSS, to a briefing of Senate Armed Services Committee Staff Director Frank Sullivan and staff members Jim Smith and John Roberts on Panama. All three will be arriving in Panama on Wednesday, 28 September and will return the following day.

[ ] presented a general briefing on the political and economic situation in Panama plus the effect of the new treaty. Sullivan asked for some economic statistics [ ] and the most recent NIE on Panama. I mentioned to Sullivan that the Community's position on providing NIE's to Congress was uncertain and that I would have to check on his request. [ ]

28. [ ] LIAISON Received a call from Hal Ford, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff. Ford said the staff was rechecking all aspects of their A Team-B Team report and in this connection would like to talk again with former Director George Bush, former DDCI E.H. Knoche and Robert Galvin, who was a PFIAB member. I said I would try to get addresses of these three. [ ]

28. [ ] LIAISON Abram Shulsky and Ted Ralston, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, both called in regard to materials the Committee used in the preparation of the report on the A Team-B Team episode. Ralston said that the B Team members Richard Pipes and Daniel Graham had reviewed the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence report and had asserted there were factual errors in the report. Senator Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) has asked the staff to review the material to check on these assertions and Shulsky and Ralston asked for access to materials on the B Team.

Shulsky said the staff would also like to talk with George Carver, former Director NIO, about Soviet strategic estimates. I told Shulsky he was not currently living in the country but I would see when his next trip to the U.S. was scheduled and inform him.
